"Jesus Loves Me"

A church was honoring one of its senior ministers who had been retired many years. He was 92 at the time and after a warm welcome and introduction, he rose from his chair and walked slowly, with great effort and a sliding gait to the podium. Without a note or written paper of any kind he placed both hands on the pulpit to steady himself and then quietly and slowly he began to speak...

"When I was asked to come here today and talk to you, your minister asked me to tell you what was the greatest lesson ever learned in my 50-odd years of preaching. I thought about it for a few days and boiled it down to just one thing that made the most difference in my life and sustained me through all my trials. The one thing that I could always rely on when tears and heartbreak and pain and fear and sorrow paralyzed me, the only thing that would comfort was this verse... "Jesus loves me this I know. For the Bible tells me so."

The old preacher stated, "I always noticed that it was the adults who chose the children's hymn 'Jesus Loves Me' (for the children of course) during a hymn sing, and it was the adults who sang the loudest because I could see they knew it the best."

"Here is a senior version of Jesus Loves Me"

Jesus loves me, this I know,
 Though my hair is white as snow
 Though my sight is growing dim,
 Still He bids me trust in Him.

(CHORUS)

Though my steps are oh, so slow,
 With my hand in His I'll go
 On through life, let come what may,
 He'll be there to lead the way.

(CHORUS)

Institutions of Lower Learning

David Wright

The January issue of Imprimis features an adaptation of a speech made by Nathan Harden at Hillsdale College on September 20, 2012. Harden, a graduate of Yale in 2009, is the author of Sex and God at Yale: Porn, Political Correctness, and a Good Education Gone Bad. In his speech Harden describes “Sex Week,” an atrocious event hosted by Yale in the name of sex education.

Indisputably, the administrators of this prestigious school aim at corrupting the morals of their students. In one classroom a topless porn star demonstrates sadomasochism. On campus a porn movie showing a bound and beaten woman “teaches” students how to conduct themselves in their own relationships. A male porn producer is invited to judge a porn star look-alike contest.

Sadly, other schools are emulating Yale’s disgusting example. Among the institutions that host Sex Weeks are Brown, Duke, Harvard, and the Big Ten universities Northwestern, Wisconsin, and Illinois. The prophet Hosea laments the deplorable spiritual condition of his people Israel, a nation that has turned away from the Lord: “They consult a wooden idol and are answered by a stick of wood. A spirit of prostitution leads them astray; they are unfaithful to their God. They sacrifice on the mountaintops and burn offerings on the hills, under oak, poplar and terebinth, where the shade is pleasant. Therefore your daughters turn to prostitution and your daughters-in-law to adultery” (Hos. 4:12-13, NIV). That same “spirit of prostitution” now possesses the heart of our own people in the United States.

But parents, we do have an alternative. A Christian college education is expensive. No doubt about it. But an education at the feet of godless people is costly too. It may cost our children their faith.

Sermon

Matt. 11:7-15

Herod’s Birthday Party (a.m.)

He Is Our Peace (p.m.)

<sup>3</sup> For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you abstain from sexual immorality; <sup>4</sup> that each one of you know how to control his own body in holiness and honor, <sup>5</sup> not in the passion of lust like the Gentiles who do not know God; <sup>6</sup> that no one transgress and wrong his brother in this matter, because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as we told you beforehand and solemnly warned you. <sup>7</sup> For God has not called us for impurity, but in holiness. <sup>8</sup> Therefore whoever disregards this, disregards not man but God, who gives his Holy Spirit to you.

1 Thess. 4:3-8

When the nights are dark and long,
In my heart He puts a song...
Telling me in words so clear,
"Have no fear, for I am near."
(CHORUS)

When my work on earth is done,
And life's victories have been won.
He will take me home above,
Then I'll understand His love.
(CHORUS)

I love Jesus, does He know?
Have I ever told Him so?
Jesus loves to hear me say,
That I love Him every day.
(CHORUS)
